A ground floor house on the Mountains of Cyprus €50,000

 Miligkouri, Nicosia

This is a traditional bungallow house located on the main road of Miligouri Village .

The village of Milligouri is on the mountainous area of Cyprus within Nicosias districts. It is only 20 mins drive from Kykkos Monastery and it is famous for the traditional goods it offers as well as a reputation for how much clean it is.

The house is attached with another house , as well as has another house on top. The size of the property is approximately 100 sq.meters covered areas. It has a living room, a kitchen area and a big, long bedroom which can very easily be divided into two bedrooms.

The important advantages of the house are the following.

It is located on the main asphalt road of the village , therefore the access to it is very easy. This makes it very convenient having in mind that a lot of properties up on the mountains don't have a car access.

Secondly , the property has beautiful mountainous views all over.
